

Crisis Care International

ESSENTIAL CRISIS CARE TRAINING

Signature Topics:

- Helping After Disaster
- Legacy of Trauma
- Trauma Sensitive Crisis Care
- Helping Children in Crisis
- Sexual Assault
- Suicide
- The Resilient Helper
- And More

Who is this for?

For those expats involved in helping and relief work post-earthquake and interested in learning how to care for those who've been through a crisis with more wisdom, insight, and skill.

COST TO YOU 400 DHM

 November 29 - 30, 2023

 9.00 AM - 5.00 PM
LUNCH INCLUDED

$300 VALUE

PRINTED MATERIALS AND CERTIFICATE AVAILABLE UPON COMPLETION

Register now via :

<https://forms.gle/EyKifvV3LQ2LnttK8>

SPECIAL SPEAKERS

SPEAKER

Philip Monroe PhD

Psychologist

Owner of Langberg, Monroe & Associates located in the greater Philadelphia area, Dr. Monroe specializes in trauma recovery.

Dr. Monroe spent 17 years leading Missio Seminary's Graduate School of Counseling where he created the MA in Counseling program and the Global Trauma Recovery Institute.

Since 2011 Dr. Monroe has supported the Trauma Healing Institute in a variety of positions, direction training, and materials development teams. Currently, he leads their Advisory Council.

Dr. Monroe's works can be found at www.philipmonroe.com and www.langbermonroe.com

SPEAKER

Stacey Sutherland

Crisis Intervention Specialist

As a board-certified life coach with a graduate degree in counseling, Ms. Sutherland leverages her 20+ years of service among non-profit and humanitarian communities to aid in trauma and disaster response.

Ms. Sutherland is the Executive Director of Crisis Care International a non-profit organization specializing in trauma-sensitive care and training for global communities experiencing conflict, crisis, or disaster.

Ms. Sutherland resides near Charlotte NC, USA.

Learn more at www.crisiscareinternational.org